STATE APPROPRIATIONS - Legislative appropriations from the State of Kansas providing general revenue for current operations of the University.

TUITION AND FEES - Revenues from tuition and fees assessed against students for educational purposes.

GRANTS AND CONTRACTS - Educational, research and public service agreements sponsored by governmental and private agencies

ENDOWMENT EXPENSES PAID ON BEHALF OF UNIVERSITY - The Kansas University Endowment Association (KUEA), not-for-profit organization whose primary mission is to raise funds for the University, provides direct and indirect support to the University that is not entirely reflected in the University’s Statement of Revenues, Expenses, and Changes in Net Position. Expense items paid on behalf of the University by KUEA include expenses such as scholarships and fellowships, salaries, construction, equipment, library acquisitions, works of art, and travel. Total University support provided by KUEA for Lawrence and Medical Center campuses equaled approximately $117.4 million and $109.4 million in 2014 and 2013, respectively.

AUXILIARY ENTERPRISES - Revenues of self-supporting enterprises providing facilities and service for students, faculty and staff.

SALES AND SERVICES OF EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENTS - Includes revenues that are related incidentally to the conduct of instruction, research, and public service and revenues of activities that exist to provide instructional and laboratory experience for students and that incidentally create goods and services that may be sold to students.

OTHER REVENUES - Includes non-endowment gifts and other miscellaneous revenues.

KU ENDOENDowment SUPPORT - The Kansas University Endowment Association is an independent, not-for-profit organization whose primary mission is to raise funds for the University of Kansas. KU Endowment provides direct and indirect support to the university that is not entirely reflected in the university’s Annual Financial Report, or the chart above.

Expense items paid on behalf of the university by KU Endowment include expenses such as scholarships and fellowships, salaries, construction, equipment, library acquisitions, works of art, and travel. Total university support provided by KU Endowment for the Lawrence and Medical Center campuses equaled approximately $117.4 million in 2014.