KU at Work: Chase County

The following profile highlights the services and support KU provides Chase County

Educating Leaders

Students

KU has 4 undergraduate students from Chase County.

KU students from Chase County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships. As of the fall census, $7,780 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Chase County students for FY 2015.

KU has 34 alumni from Chase County.

Building Healthy Communities

Public Safety

KU provides public safety training to the state for law enforcement, fire and rescue response.

In FY 2014, 4 law enforcement officers from Chase County were trained at KU.

Healthcare – KU Medical Center

Enhancing Student Education

- Chase County is part of the Southcentral Medical Education Network, which is co-directed by Greg Thomas, MD, and Marla Ullom-Minnich, MD, who are residents of McPherson and Moundridge, respectively. In their role, they help coordinate the KU School of Medicine’s efforts to mentor, train and place physicians throughout Kansas.

Strengthening the Health Care Workforce

- 4 KU Medical Center graduates live and/or practice in Chase County.

“My KU education was the stepping stone for my career in private industry. It is of critical importance that future Jayhawks have the same access to a world-class education right here at home as I had.”

— Kurt Watson, d’75,
President and COO,
The IMA Financial Group,
Butler County

4
KU students from Chase County

34
KU alumni from Chase County

4
KU Medical Center graduates who live or practice in Chase County