KU at Work: Greeley County
Highlighting the services and support KU provides Greeley County

Educating Leaders

Students

KU has 11 students from Greeley County: 9 undergraduate students, and 2 graduate students.

KU provides students from Greeley support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships. As of the fall, $30,076 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded to 6 Greeley students for FY 2015.

KU has 31 alumni from Greeley County.

Building Healthy Communities

Public Safety

KU provides training for Kansas law enforcement. In FY 2014, 1 law enforcement officer from Greeley County trained at KU.

Healthcare – KU Medical Center

Enhancing Student Education

- 1 Greeley County doctor serves as a volunteer KU Medical Center faculty, providing medical students with training in rural and underserved communities as part of the Rural Preceptorship Program.

Strengthening the Health Care Workforce

- 7 KU Medical Center graduates live and/or practice in Greeley County.
- 1 health care provider has been placed in Greeley County since 2004 through the Kansas Recruitment and Retention Center, which provides placement assistance to rural health organizations.
- 1 Greeley County physician received funding through the Kansas Bridging Plan, a loan-forgiveness program offered to primary care medical residents who agree to practice in rural Kansas.
- 1 Greeley County health care employer exhibited with Kansas Career Opportunities, which is designed to introduce medical students, residents and other health care professionals to rural communities.

Advancing Health Care Access

- 6 Kansans received free medical attention and education in 2013 through preventive screenings and events hosted in Greeley County with support from KU Medical Center programs.