Healthcare – KU Medical Center

Enhancing Student Education

- Stafford High School is one of 17 schools that last year used Mini Medical School, a resource kit for teachers in the biological sciences. The kit is designed to enhance curriculum and introduce students to the health field through exciting projects. Mini Medical School was created by the KU Area Health Education Center and features physicians and experts from KU Medical Center and Kansas State University.

Strengthening the Health Care Workforce

- 3 KU Medical Center graduates live and/or practice in Stafford County.
- 6 enrollments in KU Medical Center continuing education courses and conferences by Stafford County health care professionals in Fiscal Year 2014.

Advancing Health Care Access

- Stafford County residents saw KU health care providers 309 times via telemedicine in FY14. Telemedicine services are provided by the University of Kansas Center for Telemedicine and Telehealth.

“"The University of Kansas plays a vital role in developing our future business leaders. My KU education laid the foundation for my entire career. We must preserve KU for the success of future students, giving every Kansan access to a world-class education.”"
