KU at Work: Stanton County

The following profile highlights the services and support that KU provides to Stanton County

---

Educating Leaders

Students

KU has 9 students from Stanton County: 5 undergraduate, 3 graduate, and 1 student at the KU Medical Center.

KU students from Stanton County have support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships. As of the fall census, $29,538 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 6 Stanton County students for FY 2015.

KU has 32 alumni from Stanton County.

---

Building Healthy Communities

Public Safety

KU provides public safety training to the state for law enforcement, fire and rescue response. In FY 2014, 6 law enforcement officers and 1 fire and rescue official from Stanton County were trained at KU.

---

Healthcare – KU Medical Center

Enhancing Student Education

- 9 high school students in Stanton County participated in activities during the 2013-2014 school year that encouraged them to consider careers in health care, math and science. These events were hosted by the KU Area Health Education Center.

- Stanton County is part of the Southwest Medical Education Network with Thomas Koksal, MD, a resident of Garden City, serving as director. The director helps coordinate the School of Medicine's efforts to mentor, train and place physicians throughout Kansas.

Advancing Access to Care

- Stanton County residents made 3 visits to KU Medical Center health care providers in outreach clinics held outside of Kansas City in Fiscal Year 2014.

---

“My KU experience opened my heart and mind to want more. More for myself, my family, my community and my state. Not a day goes by without using my KU skills, in teaching our youth, working at my office or volunteering in all areas of service. I am a proud Jayhawk!”

- Debbie Nordling, d’79, State Farm Agency Owner, Hugoton, KS

9

KU students from Stanton County

7

Stanton County law enforcement officers, firefighter and first responders trained at KU in 2014